

Financial Assistance to Needy Students

Government College Kumarsain strives to create a supportive and inclusive academic environment for all students. As part of its ongoing commitment to the welfare of economically disadvantaged students, the college has implemented a best practice to assist those who face financial hardships in continuing their education.

Contribution by College Staff (Session 2023–2024):

In the academic session 2023–2024, the staff members of Government College Kumarsain came together to provide financial assistance to five students who were struggling to pay their fees. This collective effort by the teaching and non-teaching staff ensured that these students could continue their studies without interruption.
